

CARTEL
2015 NEW PRODUCTS

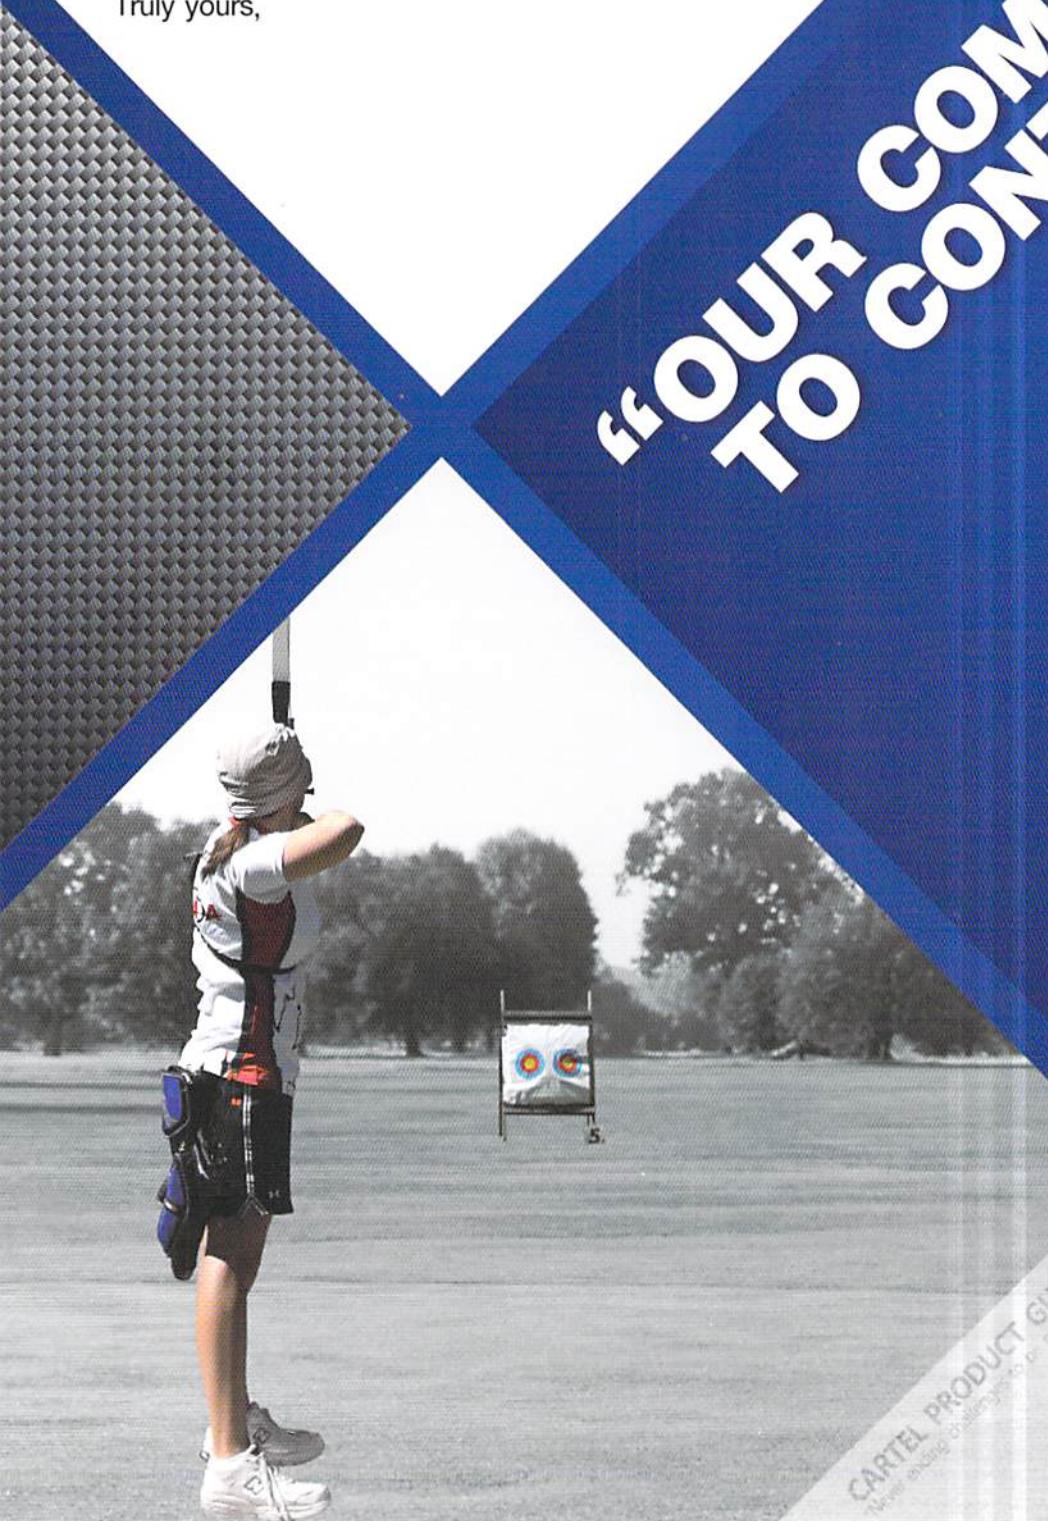

Our Commitment to Excellence

It is not easy work for us to develop something better at same cost. Many times, the upgrade process of our product required tremendous time and effort but we often gain a very little progress out of it. To find more realistic and positive changes in our product quality, we had discussed our client, archers and our staff from early this year. Herewith, we finally have come up with our new and upgraded products for CARTEL 2015. We hope that you could recognize our effort and some positive change on each product. We sincerely wish your kind attention and steadfast support in 2015.

Truly yours,

OUR COMMITMENT
